

ZERO COOL

<http://www.zerocoolband.com>

Zero Cool is a punk band from Edmonton, AB that combines their influences of early 80's hardcore (Black Flag, Circle Jerks, Descendants, D.O.A.) with 90's skate punk (NOFX, Lagwagon, Bad Religion) and thrash (Propagandhi, Zeke, Slayer). Formed in October 2007 as a result of having a bit too much time on their hands by KP and Jim Nowhere. With Philldo getting the call to play bass in the summer of 2008, and finding Andy Crackers to fill out the bands sound on drums in October of 2008. Zero Cool self released a couple EPs and in early 2010 they were approached by the Miami, FL label Livid Records (<http://www.lividrecords.com>) and signed an album by album release & distribution deal. In mid 2012 Jim Nowhere left the band due to health reasons. With over 50 shows played since the inception of the band, Zero Cool, has never played the same set list twice, currently has over 60 original songs, and if needed is able to play upwards of two hour long sets.

Chuck Livid of Livid Records had this to say about Zero Cool when asked in the Miami Times

"Canada has some of the best bands in the world. Seriously, shit's crazy up there. Livid signed Zero Cool and the Pine Tarts, and I'm not kidding when I say this: they may be two of my favourite bands of all time."

Chuck Livid From LividRecords.com

"Punk Fuckin' Rock from one of the coldest places in the world! What do the the Zero Cool dudes do during the freezing Canadian winter months? They write the best punk medleys the world's ever seen. Edmonton will never be the same and neither will your ears!"

The Portal Magazine

"Now, in a 40 minute set, you'd never expect to hear more than 15 songs from a band, but as is with "Zero Cool"; they make it happen and sound good, too. KP's "rock star quality" and "shine" on stage light up a crowd. Mixed with his playing and the equally awesome additions by "Filldo" and "Jim Nowhere", you felt a part of the production taking place on the stage."
